WILSON'S SUDDEN GAINS IN STATES THREATEN CHANGE

DOUBTFUL OF HUGHES PRESIDENT IS NOW IN FRONT IN CALIFORNIA

PROHIBITION HAS MADE STRIDES BY NATIONAL ELECTION

Several States Won; Possibly One Amendment in California Will Carry

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 8.—Prohibition has made great strides by yesterday's election.

The manager of the national Prohibition campaign said today that "returns indicate that Michigan, South Dakota, Nebraska and Montana have gone 'dry' and we saved Arkansas from going back into the 'wet' column."

"The election of Simon Bamberger, running as a Democrat-Progressive for governor of Utah, is a factor for us. He favors prohibition and this means prohibition for the state by statute."

Arkansas retained prohibition by a vote of 3 to 1.

In Washington two initiative amendments to let down the bars in this dry state to intoxicating liquors were overwhelmingly defeated. One proposed the manufacture and sale of beer to be delivered to consumers in unbroken packages. The other proposed permitting the sale of liquor by hotels to its guests.

California's Vote

Late returns from California show that there is more than a possibility that one of the two prohibition amendments, No. 2, has been victoriously carried by the "drys."

With the count in for 2184 precincts, the vote on Amendment No. 1 stands 144,298 against to 139,575 in favor. This is for prohibition in 1918.

The latest vote on Amendment No. 2 is 148,292 in favor and 126,116 against.

This was directed against the saloons as distinguished from wholesale and vineyard interests.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The steamer Columbian is under charter to the France-Canadian Steamship Company. She discharged horses at St. Nazaire and continued to Genoa with a cargo of iron and steel.

(This is believed to be the P. & O. steamship Arabia, of 7933 tons, built in 1898, and carrying passengers and freight in the Indian trade.)

HEALTH BOARD TO INVESTIGATE HAWAII DOCTOR?

Officials Refuse to Disclose Purpose of Meeting Said to Concern Japanese

To hold a meeting which is believed to be of considerable importance, but whose details have not been given out, six members of the territorial board of health left this morning for Kohala, Hawaii, on the Mauna Kea.

Those in the party include Attorney General J. M. Stinson, Dr. W. C. Hobdy, Capt. C. J. Campbell, John Markham, Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, president of the board, and Kirk B. Porter, secretary.

Theritorial officials declined today to discuss the meeting, but a report that the meeting is to be held in the form of an investigation of the practice of one or more Japanese doctors on the Big Island was not denied.

Officials in the attorney general's office and in the board of health refused to make any statement in detail regarding the investigation, though it was stated at the latter place that following a special meeting in Kohala the board plans a general inspection of the island and will return to Honolulu on the Mauna Kea next Saturday.

An inventory of the estate of the late J. Alfred Magoon, filed in the circuit court today, shows it to be worth about $66,729, exclusive of 65 separate pieces of real estate.

SEEK TO SETTLE TITLE TO IRWIN AGREEMENT TODAY

Expected Agreed Judgment Would Be Entered in U. S. Court This Afternoon

TEN SIGN WHO HAVE CLAIMS CONTESTED

If Entered Government Will Assume Title and Pay $200,000 Into Court

Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon 10 out of 12 persons whose claims to property in the Irwin site are contested by the W. G. Irwin Estate Co. had signed an agreed judgment to transfer their purported property to the U. S. government upon the payment by the latter of $200,000, the maximum price the government is willing to pay for the site.

The government, by condemnation, is seeking title to the Irwin site for use as a location for Honolulu's new federal building. The case of the government against the Irwin Estate Co. was to be heard before Federal Judge Clemens at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when it was expected that the agreed judgment would be entered condemning the site to the use of the United States and fixing its value at $200,000.

This agreed judgment, if entered, will further provide that the converse claims to the Irwin site property be determined by supplemental judgments to be hereafter entered. By the terms of the agreed judgment the title to the property in question will be vested in the United States upon the payment by the latter of $200,000 into the registry of the court. The contests to be hereafter determined will be contests over the money paid into court instead of a contest over the title to the land.

Those claimants who have already signed the agreed judgment are "Princes" Theresa Wilcox Belliveau, Mrs. K. Keawe'umahi, Cecelia Meha, Emma M. Nakuini, Kealoha Akimo, Abraham K. Kihau, Kamille, Elizabeth T. Abrahamsen, Emma A. De Fries, David O. K. K. Nolley and Kaumealani Lukela. Assistant U. S. Attorney S. B. Kemp expected to secure the signatures of the two remaining claimants this afternoon.

Those claimants whose interests are not disputed by the W. G. Irwin Estate Co. are William T. Rawlins and wife, Mrs. Victoria Ward and the Spreckels interests.

32 INFANTRY WILL RECEIVE FINE SET OF COLORS AS GIFT

A proposal that the Chamber of Commerce present the 32nd Infantry, the new regiment formed on the Hawaiian Islands, with a stand of colors as a means of expressing its appreciation was adopted by the directors at a meeting this afternoon and it was voted that a committee be appointed to take up the matter.

It was also suggested that the chambers of commerce on the other islands be asked to co-operate in order to make it a territorial affair.

How Electoral Vote Stands; Latest News

The table below gives the latest information obtainable upon the way the states went in the voting for presidential electors yesterday. Each state is put in the Republican, Democratic or doubtful column upon the best information which has come by telegraph. After each state is put the number of the electoral votes it possesses.

These standings are likely to be changed at any time by late news, but this is the situation as it stood at 3 o'clock this afternoon in New York: Ten states are in the doubtful column. Of these, Hughes had a lead in Indiana, New Hampshire, West Virginia and Oregon, with 32 votes, and if he carries these he will have 253 votes. Wilson leads in California and Minnesota, with 25 votes, and if he carries these he should have 257. This leaves 21 votes in the doubtful column on which there is no late news—Arizona 3 votes; Maine, 6 votes; Montana, 4 votes, and Nebraska, 8 votes. Should Hughes get these he will have 274, or eight more than enough to elect. If Wilson gets these he will have 278 votes, or 12 more than enough to elect.

A feature of the standing of electoral votes since the early editions of the Star-Bulletin is that North Dakota has swung apparently into the Hughes column from the Wilson column.

RIVAL MANAGERS CONTINUE TO ISSUE EMPHATIC CLAIMS

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Neither Republican nor Democratic manager is willing to concede victory to the other party as the returns come in this afternoon.

At noon Republican Chairman Willcox declared that California and Minnesota are sure for Hughes, which means that Hughes is elected. On the other hand Democratic Chairman McCormick said: "The finish will show that Wilson has more than 300 electoral votes."

In California at the same time Republican State Chairman Rowell claimed the state for Hughes by 6000 to 8000.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—At 2:30 this afternoon Republican national headquarters claims that Minnesota, Oregon, California and New Hampshire have gone Republican and that Hughes will have 277 electoral votes, 11 more than sufficient to elect him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Nov. 8.—Chester Rowell, the Republican state chairman, early this afternoon claims that the returns show Hughes has carried the state by 6000 to 8000.

Chairman Cushing of the Democratic state committee says: "The count continues to increase the confidence that California has gone for Wilson."

Governor Johnson, running for U. S. senator on the Republican ticket, has 221,250 votes to 104,451 for George Patton, his Democratic opponent.

RESULTS UP TO NOON, NEW YORK

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—With choice of president in an almost unprecedented status of doubt, Democratic and Republican headquarters are scenes of nervous activity and tension.

Although both sides claimed majorities in the electoral college, there appeared to be a feeling in both headquarters that final results may be prolonged owing to the doubtful states.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—It is rumored here that on account of the sensational closeness of the presidential fight a decision will eventually be thrown to the house of representatives.

The result appears to depend principally on California, Minnesota, Oregon and Indiana.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Nov. 8.—It is estimated that Wilson has carried Utah by 15,000.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Nov. 8.—The Kansas City Star, a Hughes supporter, conceded Kansas to Wilson. He leads in total returns by about 13,000.

JAPANESE WANT HUGHES

(Special Cable to Hawaii Shipno)
TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 8.—The Japanese government and the people are watching the result of the presidential election of the United States with much interest. The Japanese believe that there will be no particular change in Japanese-American relationship unless a new president is elected, and that it will remain the same under Wilson.

Count of Last Hour Gives Alarm to Republican Supporters--Democrats Jubilantly Congratulate Their Chief

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Honolulu time, the presidential race is still neck and neck but the gains made by Wilson in the count of the last hour in doubtful states, as telegraphed here almost momentarily, are considered to threaten seriously the chances of Candidate Hughes. The features of the late news are given in the following despatches:

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 8.—With the count in for 4306 precincts in the state, Wilson has 339,195 votes and Hughes 337,657. (Note.—This is a switch at the last minute. All day the count has favored Hughes, though his lead had been cut down hour by hour.)

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.—Nineteen hundred and forty-five precincts counted give Wilson 138,439 and Hughes 132,929.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—With latest returns showing Hughes slightly ahead in North Dakota, Republican Chairman Willcox claims the state for Hughes. In this state 1151 precincts give Hughes 33,339 and Wilson 32,519.

North Dakota an hour previous had swung into the doubtful column when the count for half the precincts showed Hughes 32,474 and Wilson 32,454.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Hughes has a light lead in West Virginia, on latest count. Nine hundred and ninety-three precincts give him 81,283 to 80,657 for Wilson. An hour previous Hughes had 68,228 to 67,000 for Wilson. They are running neck and neck.

Senator Chilton of West Virginia has telegraphed to the president at Long Branch "Congratulations. You carry West Virginia. We will guard it and see that you get it."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—With 540 precincts in the state of Indiana missing, Hughes has 233,734 and Wilson 282,852. Republicans had claimed previously the state for Hughes by 25,000.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Nov. 8.—Hughes is leading Wilson in this state, with 874 precincts giving Hughes 51,790 and Wilson 47,110.

WILSON ASSURED HE IS CERTAINLY ELECTED.
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Robert Woolley, the Democratic publicity manager, told Secretary Tumulty to tell the president that he is certainly reelected. Woolley bases his assertion on California, Minnesota and West Virginia, which states he declared, on latest returns, are sure for Wilson.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Democratic Chairman McCormick this afternoon said: "We congratulate the country on Wilson's victory. He is sure of at least 288 electoral votes." He congratulated the president by telephone.

Hughes had no statement to make at this time. He has gone automobiling.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—At 2:30 this afternoon the Democratic national headquarters issues the statement that the Democrats can lose California and Minnesota and still elect Wilson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 8.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon Hughes leads in California but late returns have cut his majority down from 9000 to 2500. The count in 3712 precincts gives Hughes 284,000 and Wilson 282,361.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—The count in 2424 Indiana precincts gives Hughes a lead of more than 10,000. The standing is Hughes 276,234 and Wilson 265,696. Republicans claim the state for Hughes by 25,000.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.—Nine hundred and forty-five precincts in the count to date give Wilson a substantial majority over Hughes, the totals being 83,470 for Wilson and 74,028 for Hughes. An earlier count in 724 precincts gave Wilson 73,443 and Hughes 63,058.

SIOUX FALLS, South Dakota, Nov. 8.—The estimated Hughes plurality in the state is 15,000 votes. Suffrage appears to have carried.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 8.—At noon today the count in 4436 precincts of the state shows Wilson far in the lead with 454,323 votes to 386,032 for Hughes.

CHARLESTON, West Virginia, Nov. 8.—Seven hundred and twenty precincts in West Virginia give Hughes 60,905 and Wilson 58,352.
